

Easter Boat Gathering

9 things not to miss

1. Get in Tune - Check out the packed programme for all the musical and drama performances.
2. Archive Action - Research your own waterway family history.
3. 'Climb That Tree' - A musical stage show with David Gibb for children aged three and over and their families. Saturday, Sunday, Monday 12.00pm, 1.30pm in the Boat Yard Café.
4. Historic Boats - Be among the first visitors to see our new boat store where vessels raised from the Upper Basin last October are being stored and worked on. Saturday and Sunday 1.00pm, 2.00pm. Limited spaces, booking essential!

9 things not to miss...

5. Boat Trips - Take a boat trip on Centaur along the Shropshire Union Canal. For visitors with access requirements, 'Over the Rainbow' will be offering you the chance to go through Ellesmere Port's historic locks.

6. Bring history to life - Download our augmented reality app and check out virtual reality views of the waterways. Visit 'Boats of Every Description' in the Island Warehouse and have a go on the Icebreaker. Don't forget to share your score Facebook!

7. Explore two exhibitions - there's No Sign of Canals on Mars: an Illustrated Travel Diaries of Eileen Burke and Only the Tide of Time: An Exhibition of photographs by Clifford Morris in the Island Warehouse.

8. Younger visitors - Explore the museum on our trails and enjoy activities in the play area.

9. Discover - All the museum usual offers will be open for visitors throughout the weekend including costumed interpreters bringing the Porters Row cottages to life.
