Preserving Water in the Desert

*Ancestral Knowledge and Sustainable Water Management in the
Oasis of Douiret-Sbâa, Morocco*

Through 30 photographs by Giulia Badocchi, Tommaso Borroni e Valeria Perrone, the exhibition explores a centuries-old community-based water management system, where cooperation, equity and traditional knowledge sustain life in an arid environment. A visual journey that highlights water heritage as a key resource for climate adaptation.
